

Water Resources and Systems Design Training Opportunities

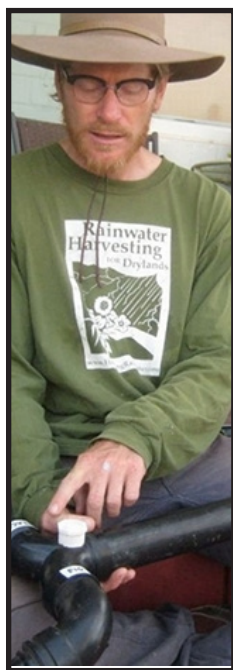

Develop skills & expertise to transform your career and community!

Water Harvesting Certification.

The most comprehensive course in passive and active water harvesting design and implementation.

» November 17-23, Tucson, AZ
» March 16-22, Tucson, AZ

LID and Green Infrastructure - Urban Retrofits.

Learn the "How To" of green infrastructure and Low Impact Design concepts, design, and best practices.

» October 24-25, Phoenix, AZ

Urban Stream Restoration.

Learn channel assessment techniques, restoration strategies, and try your hand at creating restoration features. Led by guest instructor Van Clothier, Stream Dynamics.

» January 16-17, Tucson, AZ

Learn more:

watershedmg.org/tech-trainings
tech-trainings@watershedmg.org or call 520.396.3266x1

520.396.3266 • www.watershedmg.org

Watershed Management Group's courses combines hands-on and classroom instruction to provide participants with a thorough understanding.

Taught by well-respected instructors with field experience:

- Brad Lancaster, author & water harvesting expert
- Van Clothier, author and owner Stream Dynamics
- Mark Ragel, cisterns contractor and consultant
- James DeRoussel, RLA and GI/LID design/build
- Catlow Shipek, WMG co-founder & natural resource manager