

Stream Dynamics, Inc.

P.O. Box 785, Silver City, New Mexico 88062

van@streamdynamics.us • www.streamdynamics.us • (575) 590-0549

Watershed Restoration job in Silver City, New Mexico

Project Manager Job Description: The project manager will be responsible for securing grants, developing clients, facilitating workshops and assisting with project logistics.

Skills: Strong writing and communication skills, physically fit.

Duties: Grant writing, invoicing, logistical support, organize seminars, and work in the field on chosen projects. Fieldwork will include surveying, and project monitoring. Conduct the everyday operations of the Stream Dynamics office.

Hours: 35 hours per week with flex-time and remote work options. Approximately 75% in the office, and 25% in the field.

Compensation: Pay based on experience.

Professional Development:

Stream Dynamics will invest in job related trainings and certifications pertinent to company goals.

Stream Dynamics Mission: Creating effective watershed restoration in a beautiful landscape. Protecting the Gila and Mimbres Rivers. Advocating for the natural ecology of our watersheds by promoting professional local stream and drainage work.

For more information:

Go to www.streamdynamics.inc and <https://www.facebook.com/streamdynamics/>

To apply for this position, please send a letter of interest and your resume to van@streamdynamics.us

